

Develop your English language teaching skills

With over 50 years' experience in delivering high-quality English language training services worldwide, Bell is the perfect partner in helping you develop your English language teaching (ELT) skills.

Teacher development courses for January 2010

Course outline	Ideal for...	Date
Creativity in the Classroom
New, practical ideas to liven up your classroom! Topics include: - Creative ways to present grammar - New approaches to teaching pronunciation - Humanistic techniques which aid learning - Use of literary texts to promote extensive reading - Use of new technology to enhance language learning	Experienced teachers working with secondary or adult students	17 - 30 January 2010
Contemporary English
Introducing you to the current trends of teaching English. Topics include: - Modern colloquial and idiomatic English - Recent changes in grammar and pronunciation - Slang and taboo English - Teaching contemporary English to advanced students - Differences in the way language is used by genders	Experienced teachers with a high standard of English	31 January - 13 February 2010

Bell International College, Cambridge

Package details

Our package price is £1,160 and includes:

- 42 hours classroom tuition at Bell International College, Cambridge
- All learning materials
- Half-board homestay accommodation with a local family
- A programme of social activities
- £30 lunch credit per week for use in the College's dining facilities
- End of course certificate

You can also progress your ELT career with the new modular online Delta from Bell. Sign up for September 2009 and enjoy an exciting and flexible study programme.

For more information

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 212333

Email: info@bell-centres.com

www.bell-centres.com/teachers

Coming soon!

Bell's programme of teacher development courses for summer 2010.